

What are LSOs?

LSOs or Local Support Organisations are a Union Council level federation of Community Institutions. In a bid to reduce poverty at the household level and empower marginalised people (esp. women), they carry out community-led development and develop linkages with government and non-government organisations.

Women leaders of the LSO Saeed Khan Lund are planning and implementing development activities both on self-help basis as well as in collaboration with government agencies. The EU-funded SUCCESS programme is empowering rural women in Sindh by realising the power they gain from collective action. The organised women are gaining awareness about their rights, making the service providers accountable and are also taking self-initiatives to improve their lives.

Ensuring Civil Registration in The Union Council (UC)

Leaders of the Local Support Organisation (LSO) Saeed Khan Lund District Tando Mohammad Khan have been very supportive and committed to the people and resolving their issues. Many people in the UC Saeed Khan Lund did not have a Computerised National Identity Card (CNIC), neither they knew its significance and the registration process, nor they had the resources required for registration. Therefore, leaders of the LSO decided to reach out to the NADRA Office and developed linkages with the officials. Meanwhile, the leaders identified people from their LSO who were eligible for registering their CNICs and arranged a vehicle for them utilising savings of the village organisations so that they could go and get their CNICs from NADRA. The initiative has helped many women receive their identity as a citizen.
